

Indigenous Sport Program

Club Fee Subsidy

Guidelines and Application Form

2007 - 2008

The Government of South Australia provides support to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander athletes to access on-going sport and recreation participation opportunities at a local level.

The Office for Recreation and Sport (ORS) is committed to increasing the quality and level of participation by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and as a result, the Indigenous Sport Program has implemented a Club Fee Subsidy Program for 2007/2008 which replaces the 2006/2007 Indigenous Sport and Recreation Support Program.

Applications are now open for the 2007/2008 financial year and will remain open until 11 April 2008. There will be two designated closing dates;

Endorsement Of Application

As part of the assessment process, an endorsement of your application is required by a member of your sporting club or organisation. Please attach a supporting letter detailing the costs of your registration fees with your application.

How Will My Application Be Assessed?

It is anticipated that the funding requested will be greater than the funds available so being eligible does not guarantee receipt of support. Applications will therefore be assessed against the following criteria;

- ❑ Ability to meet outcomes of SA's State Strategic Plan and the SA Physical Activity Strategy
- ❑ The type of activity is a recognised sport by the Australian Sports Commission
- ❑ Increased participation and demonstrated commitment to sport and
- ❑ Ongoing nature of the activity that funds are requested for.

Successful Applicants

Successful applicants will be required to advise the Indigenous Sport Program (ISP) of their sporting results at the end of their season and complete a brief survey to be used for data collection in the ISP's yearly participation report to the Australian Sports Commission.
