

New department, same business

With the recent appointment of the Hon Jay Weatherill as the new Premier of South Australia, several government departments and functions have been realigned.

The Office for Recreation and Sport will now be part of the new-look Department of Planning, Transport and Infrastructure (DPTI).

This move ensures a strong emphasis will remain on more and improved sport and recreation facilities and open space participation opportunities in line with the State Planning Strategy.

ACTIVE FOR LIFE

