

MEN'S FOOTBALL HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 29th SEPTEMBER 2006

FFSA Competitions

The SASI men's football team had a mixed week in the FFSA competitions. On Wednesday they secured the Under 23 League Championship by drawing 2-2 with Modbury. SASI finished the season with the same points as Adelaide City and White City but won the championship with a superior goal difference.

On Saturday at Hindmarsh, SASI played in the Under 23 Knockout final against Campbelltown. Unfortunately SASI went down 1-0 and missed the chance of winning the League and Cup double.

SASI Goalkeeper Michael McEntegert has signed with English Premier League club Everton and will begin a two-year apprenticeship on 1st October.

SASI Scholarship Holders Sign Contracts

SASI scholarship holders Ryan McGowan and Rocky Visconte have signed three-year contracts with Scottish Premier League team Hearts. Travis Anderson has signed with Scottish club Falkirk on a one-year contract.

SASI graduate Mario Karlovic has signed with Italian Series A club Torino. Mario was a scholarship holder with SASI in 1998/99 before playing with Adelaide City in the National League. He then transferred to Serie C club Cittadella.

SASI Qualify for U23 Knockout Final

SASI have qualified for the final of the FFSA Under 23 knockout final by defeating Croydon 2-1 after extra time in the semi final. This is a great achievement considering that the majority of the SASI squad are U/16's. SASI will now meet Campbelltown in the Final on September 23rd at Hindmarsh.
