

TRAMPOLINE HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 17th NOVEMBER 2006

SASI Hosts Australian Youth Olympic Festival Trials

SASI Aerial Sports High Performance Training Centre hosted the National Trampoline Australian Youth Olympic Festival Trials last weekend - 11th & 12th November.

10 young men and 10 girls attended the trial, coming in from all over Australia. In the preceding week many of these trampolinists attended a 5 day camp as a lead up to the trials.

SASI athlete Alexandra Freeman was selected to the Australian team for the Youth Olympics, along with two other SA trampolinists – Aslin Styles and Will Morris.

TRAMPOLINE HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 7th JULY 2006

SASI Athletes Perform at Nationals

Scott Brown and Ben Wilden won Gold and Silver respectively, in the Men's individual trampoline competition at the Nationals in Brisbane. Brown and Wilden also competed together in the Men's Synchronized Trampoline, winning Gold. They turned in consistent performances in all preliminary and finals routines and were named as automatic qualifiers to the National Team.

Alexandra Freeman won the Junior Women's individual trampoline event and she was also named in the National squad.

TRAMPOLINE HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 31st MARCH 2006

Brisbane Cup

At the recent Brisbane Cup, SASI Trampoline athletes Ji WALLACE, Viktor ZHURAVLEV, Ben WILDEN and Scott BROWN were all success in making qualifying points for National Team and for the Indo-Pacific Championships held in July. Ben, Ji and Scott have also qualified for Gymnastics Australia Sports Excellence Program funding.

TRAMPOLINE HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 17th FEBRUARY 2006

SASI Gymnasts to compete in Pacific Alliance Championships

The Pacific Rim's best gymnasts will be heading to Honolulu, Hawaii, to compete in the 2006 Pacific Alliance Gymnastics Championships, April 13-15. The three-day event features competition in artistic gymnastics at the Neal Blaisdell Centre and rhythmic gymnastics and trampoline at the Hawaii Convention Centre.

The Australian Men's Artistic Gymnastics Junior and Senior teams have been named for these championships following the recent trials in Canberra. The senior team includes SASI athlete Sam Offord (who has also been selected for the Commonwealth Games) and the Junior team includes SASI Associate Scholarship holders Sean O'Hara and Jonathon Chien (reserve). SASI Coach Yu Bo will also travel with the team as the Senior Coach.