

BASKETBALL HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 28 May 2010

Program Update

Daniel Carlin attended a final selection camp for with Australian Under 17 national squad last week and has been named in the final team to compete at the U17 World Championships in Hamburg, Germany at the beginning of July.

BASKETBALL HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 7 May 2010

Three SASI Scholarship holders were named in the Australian Under 17 Basketball Team of 12 to contest the first ever Under 17 World Championship that will be conducted in France in.

The three girls are Olivia Thompson (now AIS), Aneeka Smith and Stephanie Talbot. They have a final preparation camp in early June and in July will compete in a pre-tournament competition in Spain prior to the Championship in July.

At this stage Daniel Carlin has been retained in the Under 17 Men's squad and will attend a final selection camp in Ballarat later this month.

Tayla Corrigan has also been recalled into the Under 19 Gems squad and will leave today to attend a three-day camp in Canberra.

These individual achievements follow closely behind the recent 2010 Under 18 National Championships where the SA Metro Girls came home with bronze medal and the SA Metro boys finished fourth.

BASKETBALL HIGHLIGHTS FOR THE WEEK ENDING 5 March 2010

U20 National Championships

The U20 National Championships were held in Gawler last week and 18 of the 20 male and female athletes who represented SA have graduated from SASI in the past 12 or 13 months.

The girls were convincing finalists, defeating Victoria by 27 points to clinch the Gold medal.

The boys however, after leading well for much of the Gold medal playoff surrendered the lead to Victoria with in the final quarter and lost by 3.

Nicole Seekamp was awarded the Bob Staunton medal as the outstanding player in the women's division, and there was some consolation for the men with Corey Maynard also being named as the Staunton medallist.