

Four more SASI Female Footballers selected in National Squad Camp.

Congratulations to the following girls who have recently gained their first National selection at the upcoming U17 National Training camp taking place at the AIS between 14th – 17th April.

Jess Waterhouse (14)
Nicole Tilley (15)
Georgia Williamson (15)
Grace Henry (16)

Emma Checker (15), will also be travelling to Canberra after gaining invitation to her second camp after being selected previously in March.

Ebony Philpox, although not invited to this after taking part in March has impressed Vicki Linton enough for her to be rested for a camp before taking part again in May.

The National U17 squad is preparing to qualify through Asia for the U17 World Cup in Uzbekistan in 2012.

Young Matildas

Congratulations to Angela Fimmano who will also be travelling to Canberra for a National U20 Camp. Angela (19) has been a SASI scholarship holder for four years and was in the previous Young Matilda campaign travels the AIS from the 7th to 10th April.

FFSA Boys league results

Cumberland Utd 3 SASI Girls 3

After a horror start to the season conceding 3 goals in the first 20 minutes of the opening game of the season the SASI girls showed enormous character and team resolve to bounce back later in the game. With goals from Nicole Tilley, Jess Waterhouse and Daniella De Bartolo and an outstanding set of saves from Georgia Williamson the SASI girls impressed all observers with great skill and combination play.

National Selections

SASI Scholarship holders Ebony Philpox, Emma Checker and Angela Fimmano recently travelled to Canberra to take part in their respective National Squad training camps.

Angela (19) rejoined team mates from past Young Matildas Squads along with new invitees in preparation for the U19 AFC qualifiers later this year. Ebony and Emma (both 15) were very excited to attend for their first time an invitation to take part in the U16 National Camp also with a view to AFC qualifiers for the World Cup to be held later in the year.
